Archery—there is a good turn out each week with 23 shooters last week.
They will be getting bids for the targets.

Trap—They are in first place in the summer league. Trap practice is going okay each week.
Bob has $288.75 in his money box and there is $293 in Kathy's money box. There is $1, 694.78 in their checking account, for a total of $2,276.53. They wrote a check for $5,000.00 to the club.

Black powder and Groundhog committees no reports.

Steel Gong shoots are going good with 7or 8 shooters each week.

Shippensburg fair income was a little down from last year. They used 45 bowls this year compared to 49 bowls last year. So far this year we have sold 124 bowls. Brian will be requesting the authority to purchase bowls for next year.

Finance committee held a meeting. Finances are going good.

Jeffery Lingle requested life membership.

Bill expressed his thanks to all who helped at the fair.

New business—Weis Market might not be providing supplies for large events any more.

Darrell asked if we will again have a 4Wheeler as a prize next years' June drawing. The club will be exploring other options.

The club needs to purchase a new club flag. It was decided to go ahead and order a new flag.
A new state flag is also needed. Can we get one from Representative Irving?

50/50 was $65
