

Shippensburg Fish & Game Association
Board of Directors Meeting
April 14, 2026

Meeting called to order by Chairman Jerrid Lozenski.

A presentation by Scott Cohick, Director of Cumberland County for the Protect our Women.

He is proposing that a host location be here at the club. He explained the program and what it does for women.

Training is beginner-friendly and paced to your comfort level — no prior experience required. You will learn about - Situational awareness and avoidance, De-escalation and decision-making, Self-defense fundamentals, Emergency medical basics and Firearms training (optional)

It is totally free to anyone who wished to attend.

Training is taught in a safe environment that prioritizes comfort, boundaries and confidence.

A lot of question were asked. Here are some of them.

He was how much space is needed. He said a 25×25 foot space is needed to start.

Can anyone use the facilities when not in use for a course? He said yes.

Would we have to shut down the ranges when the is a course in progress. He said not.

Do they have liability insurance? Yes they have their own liability insurance.

Protect Our Women has a facility in Boiling Springs if anyone want to look at their setup.

M-S-P to move forward with the proposal. They will meet with club officers on April 20th at 5PM to talk about where it could possibly be placed.

Also attending was Loren Hockensmith from Hold The Line Ministries which is actively involved in the Protect Our Women Movemet.

Bob is working on the camera upgrade.

Work on the building at the Shippensburg Fair Grounds will be done soon. Jerrid will get prices for the supplies that are needed for the repairs.

May need to get some new snow fence to block off areas for the drawing.

Jesse Lichtenberger resigned his position on the Board of Directors because he is moving to Idaho.

M-S-P to adjourn
