Old business – The club received 60 membership applications the first two and half days. There are also 11 junior membership applications. At the April 14th half of the proposed new members will be voted into the club. The May meeting will have the other half of the proposed members and the Junior members voted in.

Trying to get someone here from I.B. Able to see what we need to do to update the cameras.

June drawing tickets are at the printers for proofing. They will be ready in the next week or so.

Kids Night went well again this year. There were between 50/60 here the last night. The PA Trappers Federation members have been here most Monday nights. The kids had fun building small plastic traps. They also saw how skins are stretched.
Andy said they would like to order a few more small bows for next year.

Buy Sale and Swap - the kitchen had a profit of approximately $500 and $670 was taken in from table rental and one donation of $20.

NRA- the NRA is in the process of restructuring.

One change they have made is The NRA's print magazines, American Rifleman and American Hunter, are now published quarterly, with monthly digital editions.

New business – Proposed changes to the clubs bylaws.

There will be no initiation fee for junior members.

Move the Board of Directors meeting to Tuesday after the General Membership Meeting. They were originally to be held on the Wednesday following the regular monthly meeting.

Under H #2 Board of Trustees in the bylaws take out the part about the Board of Trustees being organized with a chairman vice-chairman and secretary among themselves.

The proposed changes will read at three consecutive meetings and then voted on.

M-S-P to approve the proposals

Junior membership members will be taken in at the same time as regular members.

Officer McGill from the Shippensburg EMS would like to propose holding kids day camps here at the club for such things as CPR for kids, stop the bleed and wilderness training. Is there some interest in this by the club.

Shippensburg EMS will be here all day for the June drawing.

June drawing is ready to go. Darrell and Tom are inventorying tonight

Shippensburg is holding a 250 picnic at Memorial Park the same day as our June drawing.
